faith and hope and love divine,
peace on earth and joy in heaven,

Refrain

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

The Invitatory and Psalter:

Officiant Lord, open our lips.

People And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

+++++

Liturgical note - Today is Rogation Sunday. Traditionally, Rogation Days are the three days before Ascension Day (this Thursday) on which the litany is sung (or recited) in procession as an act of intercession. They originated in Vienne, France, in the fifth century. In England they were associated with the blessing of the fields at planting. The vicar "beat the bounds" of the parish, processing around the fields reciting psalms and the litany. In the United States they have been associated with rural life and with agriculture and fishing. The term is from the Latin rogatio, "asking."
